

We're off to China this month! This month's get together will be based on two books: "Little Pear" and "Little Pear and His Friends." Both take place in a small village in China, many years ago.

They are relatively easy reads for the older kids who want to read it themselves, and the younger kids should enjoy them as read alouds. This party will have activities based on the books, as well as some that give the kids the opportunity to explore the Chinese culture.

For those of you I don't know yet, please let me know the ages of kids so I have appropriate activities.

Here are links to the books so you can read a description and see if you'll be interested in reading it with us.

If you'd like to donate anything to cover any supplies, that would be welcome (but not necessary). :)
