

The Give Way Reading Challenge 2022

52 Books in 52 Weeks

| | |
|--|---|
| A book mentioned in another book | Memorable book |
| South in the title | Setting on/near a body of water |
| Young adult novel | Book recommended by a friend |
| Book to movie or tv this year | Modern classic |
| Heroic character | Lesser known book of famous author |
| Set in Europe | A book you're excited to read |
| Weather related book | Hawthornden Prize |
| About the 1930s | Character is a millennial |
| Randomly grabbed book from your TBR pile | A book you'd share with a child |
| Asian author | About a subject you're passionate about |
| Independently/Self-Published | 25 year old or younger author |
| RITA Award winner | Theme: Courage |
| Book with a number 1 in the title | Genre hybrid |
| Favorite Author | Set in the winter |
| An encouraging/uplifting book | Schneider Family Book Award |
| Rural Setting | Based on a true story |
| Short story | Start/Finish a series |
| Setting in/near the Sahara Desert | Book translated to your language |
| Muslim character/Islamic history in your country | Mystery |
| Fairy Tale | Book with a bird on the cover |
| Favorite color on the cover | Published in 1960's |
| Author who uses initials | About the decade you were born |
| Caldecott Award Winning Book | Latin American character |
| About South Africa | Cookbook |
| A book with measurement/size in the title | Set in college/college town |
| Character is on the autism spectrum | Axiom Business Book Award |